Course: E0237 – 2016 National Preparedness Directorate National Training, Education, and Exercise (NTE&E) Symposium

Dates: May 24–26, 2016

Travel Dates:

Travel days are May 23 and May 27, 2016.

Travel and Per Diem for Federal staff is the responsibility of the participant's office, directorate, or region.

Course Length:

This symposium is 3 days in length. Travel days are Monday and Friday.

Course Description:

This Symposium provides a review of training and exercise programs within the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) that are applicable to our state, local, tribal, and territorial (SLTT) partners. The symposium also provides a forum for sharing best practices and case studies in training and exercises from the SLTT level.

Course Objectives:

1. Based on the information acquired during the NTE&E Symposium, participants will identify at least one element to implement, modify, or validate in their training and exercise program.
2. Identify tools, resources, processes, and methods for determining capability gaps in a participant's jurisdiction that can be filled through training and validated by exercises.
 - a. Identify methods to determine if training is the appropriate element to close a capability gap.

3. Identify the tools for planning, executing, and evaluating training and exercise programs to close identified gaps.
